RESPONSE OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SERVICE, OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL, AND AGENCY OF NATURAL RESOURCES TO ORDER ON MOTION FOR SPECIAL CONFIDENTIALITY PROTOCOLS:
PRELIMINARY LIST OF COUNSEL AND EXPERTS

Pursuant to the Public Service Board’s (“Board”) June 15, 2017, Procedural Order on Motion for Special Confidentiality Protocols (“Order”), the Department of Public Service (“DPS”), the Office of the Attorney General (“AGO”), and the Agency of Natural Resources (“ANR”) (collectively, the “Parties”) hereby file preliminary lists of counsel, experts, and consulting experts working for or retained by the Parties who require access to the “detailed pay item disbursement schedule” (the “Disbursement Schedule”) that will be produced by Petitioners NorthStar Decommissioning Holdings, LLC; NorthStar Nuclear Decommissioning Company, LLC; NorthStar Group Services, Inc.; LVI Patent Corporation; and NorthStar Group Holdings, LLC (the “NorthStar Petitioners”). The Parties reserve the right to supplement this list in the future. See Order at 3 n.3.

I. COUNSEL

The following counsel working for or on behalf of the Parties require access to the Disbursement Schedule.

- AGO: Kyle Landis-Marinello, Joshua Diamond.
- ANR: Jennifer Duggan, Jordan Gonda.
- DPS: James Porter, Stephanie Hoffman.
- Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP: Robert Kirsch, Felicia Ellsworth, Bonnie Heiple, Nathaniel Custer, Mark Gordon.

II. EXPERTS

The following experts working for or on behalf of the Parties require access to the Disbursement Schedule for the reasons identified thereafter.

- Chuck Schwer, ANR: Mr. Schwer has been employed by ANR since 1990, first as a supervisor in the Waste Management and Prevention Division (WMPD) of the Department of Environmental Conservation, and then as Section Chief of the Sites Management Section of the WMPD. Currently, Mr. Schwer is the Director of the WMPD. In his role at ANR, he has managed or helped manage ANR's oversight of non-radiological waste management and prevention activities at the VY Station during the plant's operation and post-closure. ANR will offer testimony in this docket and Mr. Schwer must review the Disbursement Schedule to inform that testimony.
- Steve Simoes, ANR: Mr. Simoes has worked in ANR's Hazardous Waste Program in the WMPD for approximately 25 years. Prior to working for the State of Vermont, he worked for a Vermont-based environmental testing laboratory for six years. During his career at ANR, Mr. Simoes has been involved in all aspects of program implementation, such as inspection and permitting of regulated entities, enforcement, rule and policy development, and program authorization. He has also been involved with both regional and national associations of state hazardous waste program officials that work together to ensure consistent regional and national program implementation of hazardous waste regulations and standards. He provides technical support on non-radiological hazardous waste matters pertaining to the operation and post-closure activities at Vermont Yankee. ANR will offer testimony in this docket and Mr. Simoes must review the Disbursement Schedule to inform that testimony.

- Gerold Noyes, ANR: Mr. Noyes has been employed by ANR for 19 years. He is currently a Hazardous Waste Site Manager in ANR's Sites Management Section and Brownfield Response Program in the WMPD. He provides technical support on non-radiological hazardous waste matters pertaining to post-closure activities at Vermont Yankee. ANR will offer testimony in this docket and Mr. Noyes must review the Disbursement Schedule to inform that testimony.
- Brian Winn, DPS: Mr. Winn was previously employed by the U.S. Army, Southern California Edison, and Edison International. He currently serves as the Director of Finance & Economics for DPS.
