Subject: A few questions about Swanton Wind
Date: Wednesday, November 29, 2017 2:06:55 PM

Hello Judith,

Other than being absolutely elated about Swanton Wind withdrawing their application, I can't help but have a few questions I'm hoping you can answer.

- 1) Is there is a grace period? Can they say after 1 or 2 weeks, nope we changed our minds and have everything go back to where it was 2 days ago?
- 2) If they reapplied in 10-12 months would everything start from scratch?
- 3) Because they withdrew their application does that mean that the PUC is unable to dismiss the case with prejudice?
- 4) They've asked for their $100K application fee back - is that even a possibility? And, if so, wouldn't that mean that the intervenors and the towns and the RPC who spent out thousands of dollars also should get their money back?

Is there anything else we should know about what happens after an application is withdrawn that I am not covering in my questions?

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,
Sally Collopy
